For the prevention and cure o
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of person can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS—With this view I have purchased the FRENCH CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikeland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniencies for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to

IMITATION OF BYRON.

A few evenings since, when the new poem "Beppo" was the topic of conversation, and which was attributed to the prolific muse of Lord Byron, a gentleman present condemned it as unworthy his lordship, and declared, that any one could write verses equally good. The poem was opened at the following stanza, which the gentleman challenged:

"Did'st ever see a gondola? For fear
You should not, I'll describe it you exactly:
'Tis a long cover'd boat that's common here,
Carv'd at the prow, built lightly but compactly,
Rowed by two rowers, each called 'Gondolier;'
It glides along the water looking blackly,
Just like a coffin clapt in a canoe,
Where none can make out what you say or do."

The imitation, which we subjoin, he produced almost immediately; and if it is not equal to the original 'liquid lines," the fault certainly is not chargeable to us.

"Did'st ever see a steam-boat? If you've not,
I will describe it to you exactly if I can:
'Tis a long sided vessel, with a head
Fantastically carv'd, like some great man,
And curiously painted white and red;
And in it people sail from Albany and back.
And when you see the smoke, 'tis always black."

From the Comet.

IRISHISM.

Copy of a letter, written during the rebellion, by Sir * * * *, an Irish member of Parliament, to his friend in London.

My Dear Sir,

Having now a little peace and quietness, I sit down to inform you of the dreadful bustle and confusion we are in, from these blood-thirsty rebels, most of whom are, however, thank God, killed and dispersed.

We are in a pretty mess—can get nothing to eat, nor any wine to drink, except whiskey; and when we sit down to dinner, we are obliged to keep both hands armed; while I write this letter, I hold a sword in one hand and a pistol in the other I concluded from the beginning this would be the end of it; and I see I was right, for it is not half over yet. At present there are such goings on, that every thing is at a stand.

I should have answered your letter a fortnight ago, but I only received it this morning. Indeed, hardly a mail arrives safe without being robbed.—No longer ago than yesterday, the coach, with the mails from Dublin, was robbed near this town; the bags had been judiciously left behind, for fear of accidents, and by good luck, there was nobody in the coach, but two outside passengers, who had nothing for the thieves to take.

Last Thursday notice was given that a gang of rebels were advancing hither, under the French standard, but they had no colours, nor any drums, except bagpipes. Immediately every man in the place, including women and boys, ran out to meet them. We soon found our force much too little, and they were far too near to think of retreating; death was in every face; but to it we went, and by the time half our little party were killed we began to be all alive. Fortunately the rebels had no guns; but pistols, cutlasses and pikes; and as we had plenty of muskets and ammunition, we put them all to the sword; not a soul of them escaped, except some that were drowned in an adjoining bog; and, in a very short time nothing was to be heard but silence. Their uniforms were all of different colours, but mostly green. After the action we went to rumage a sort of camp they left behind them; all we found was a few pikes without heads, a parcel of empty bottles full of water, and a bundle of blank French commissions, filled up with Irishmen's names.

Troops are stationed every where round the country, which exactly squares with my ideas.

I have only leisure to add that I am in great haste.

P. S. If you do not receive this in course, it must have miscarried; therefore I beg you will immediately write to me to let me know of the same.

POLITE ACCOMPLISHMENT.

The Newburyport Herald says, a dancing-master (who lately advertised for a school in this town) has been practising a new step—to the tune of "My landlord's bill I left unpaid"—he will probably rigadoon to the eastward, and give similar lessons, till some officer of justice shall inform him his jig is up.

ALEXANDRIA:
TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 18.

We refer our readers to the perusal of a proposal in another column for publishing a collection of valuable secrets in Medicine. The author has fully developed the utility of the work; and as its cheapness will enable every individual to obtain it, we cannot but believe that it will be generally subscribed for. A person who is now in town will call upon the citizens in a few days for their subscriptions.

The New-York Gazette of Friday last, states, that the corner stone of the seventh Presbyterian Church was laid in that city on the Monday preceding.

Two corporals of the 2d regiment of infantry at Sackets Harbor, (Hany and Varian) agreed to fight with muskets—they appeared on the ground, with their seconds on the 11th ultimo. The ball of Hany passed through the heart of Varian. The seconds are arrested, and await their trial. What kind of murder is this? Thus honor descends to the ranks. [N. Y. Gaz.

The editor of the Philadelphia American Centinel, states, that he has in his possession, a supplement to the Prince of Wales' Island Gazette, the paper of which is manufactured from rice. He describes it as being smooth, even, and of a fine texture.

There is now living in New-York, a free colored man, of excellent habits, who is well established in business, and has acquired property. He was once a slave, but purchased his freedom. The children of his former master, fell into poverty; and he has for several years supported one of them. [Philad. Freeman's Journal.

The Robbers of the Cumberland Bank in Portland.—I appears that "Captain Rolfe was a sea captain, in very good circumstances; owned a fine farm about 10 miles from town, and one quarter of a good brig. He has left a widow and seven children to mourn his dreadful fate.

"Mr. Manly has been a West India trader in Portland for many years, and was in easy circumstances."

SEA SERPENT IN NEW-BRUNSWICK.

The New-Brunswick Courier of July 25, states, that a great sea serpent was seen a few days ago off Sissiboo. The editor remarks that it is the first American arrival in British waters since the passing of the Free Port Act.

The Boston Intelligencer of Saturday evening, states, that three expeditions are cruizing for the sea serpent. The adventurers are bold, hardy and capable. The canoe, harpoon, hook, grapple, rifle, musket, swivel, and seine will be used, together with some other means of hostility, which have been contrived to entrap him.

THE ROUTE TO NEW-YORK CHANGED.

Formerly the great current of travelling between Philadelphia and New-York passed through Newark and Elizabethtown in New-Jersey, but since the completion of the turnpike undertaken by Daniel D. Tompkins, esq. vice-president of the United States, it crosses Staten Island. A steam-boat has also been purchased by the same gentleman, which plies regularly between that island and the city of N. York, and a horse boat runs from the said island to Blazing Star. The mail stage, it is said, is the only one which now travels on the old mail route. [Philadelphia Amer. Cen.

FROM CAPE HENRY.

We learn by the schr. Henry, captain Williams, 13 days from Cape Henry, that all was tranquil in that island when he sailed. The following exhibits the state of the market at that place:

Coffee, 20 per cwt. cash; sugar, 7 to 8 dollars do; cocoa, from 9 to 9¼ do; superfine flour, 14 per bbl; pork, mess, 25 do; beef, do 15 do; herrings, good, 5 50; cod fish, do 5; butter, do 20 cts per lb; Lard, do 25; hams, do 25; sweet oil, 8 dolrs. per doz; [illegible] pine boards, 25 per M; do scantlings 25.

LATEST FROM HAYTI.

We have accounts from Cape Henry, Hayti, to the 19th July. Christophe continued on his tour in the interior of his kingdom, accompanied by his family, and body guards. His cabinet secrets remained unknown. Public opinion at the Cape was divided on his real object—some thinking he had a warlike enterprise against Boyer's domain, in view; while others contended he was merely making a tour of his dominions, to view the improvements and inspect the fortifications of the interior. We incline to the last opinion, and believe Christophe's long stop at St. Marks was to ascertain the state of public opinion in Petion's domain, after his death.

The French papers indicate, that as soon as the new royal army is organized, a powerful expedition will be sent against St. Domingo, composed of volunteer corps. [Ib.

Upwards of twenty oystermen have been taken up in this city and fined for selling oysters contrary to law—some have been imprisoned; and this rigorous enforcement of the laws, we trust, will prevent others from violating them. [N. Y. Adv.

NARROW ESCAPE.

A few days since, two daughters of Edmund Livermore, Esq. of Brattleborough, in attemping to cross the east branch of Deerfield river, upon a foot bridge, fell in. The rapidity of the current was such, that it carried them both about thirty rods, when the oldest, a girl of about thirteen, was caught by her brother, a lad about 15 years of age, at the risk of his own life, and brought to shore. The other girl, five years of age, was given up for some time as lost; but by the exertions of two young men, she was taken out of the stream after she had been carried down one hundred and 27 rods. In about two or three minutes, signs of life appearing, she was taken to a neighboring house, put into warm flannel, and in about three hours carried to her father's house apparently well. The next day she attended school as usual.

RESUSCITATION.

On the 3d inst. a son of Mr. John Rose, of Charleston, S. C. while bathing at Cannon's Bridge, got entangled among some logs; and after remaining under water nearly a quarter of an hour "he was taken up and carried home, to all appearance dead. His suspended animation was, however, restored by the timely and well directed exertions of Dr. H. C. Glover."

Washington, (Pa.) August 10.

A new line of stages, from Washington city and Baltimore have commenced running to Wheeling direct. From the magnitude of the enterprise and the badness of the roads in many places (a considerable part of the national turnpike remaining unfinished) the entire fulfilment of the contract could not reasonably be expected in the commencement. But we have been informed by a passenger from Washington city, that the stages, &c. are complete from both the above cities as far as this place. It now only wants the necessary arrangements to be made between this and Wheeling, which we understand is every day expected, when the public will be gratified in the accomplishment of an undertaking to which they have looked with much anxiety. The first trip from Washington city and Baltimore to this place has been performed with 7 passengers in less than four days and a half.

[Translated for the Charleston Times.]

Havana, July 26, 1818.

From Porto Rico Gazettes of the 13th ult. we have extracted the following interesting intelligence from the main:—

Copies of official letters from his excellency Don Pablo Morillo, to the Captain General of Venezuela.

Brigadier Don Francisco Thomas Morales, writes me from Calaboza under date of the 13th inst. that he entered the town on that day, and found it abandoned by the enemy, who left behind him three pieces of artillery dismounted.

Cedeno, who now calls himself "Supreme Chief," was posted about six leagues distance with a force, as was stated, of 700 cavalry and 300 infantry, a number, which I conceive to be exaggerated.

We have strong reasons to doubt of the existence of Bolivar, of whom we have heard nothing positive since the action of "Rincon de los toros." The rebels buried in Rastro, with much secrecy, a personage, whom they carried thither wounded, from the field of battle, and they afterwards spent eight days in Calabozo in paying funeral honors and in offering up prayers, on what account is not known. I have ordered these circumstances to be carefully examined into, and shall inform you of the result of my enquiries.

God preserve you many years.

PABLO MORILLO.

Head Quarters Guataparo, May 18th 1818.

[General Morillo in his dispatch dated Valencia, the 19th of May, mentions the names of many of the enemy's officers who fell on the 2d of May in the battle of Cogede; among them we remark that of Col. Blake, an Englishman.]

Official letter from the same, to the same, dated Head Quarters, Valencia, May 24th, 1818.

Having understood that the rebel Cedeno occupied Calabozo and its environs, and was increasing his forces by requiring under pain of death all the male inhabitants of the towns under his control to join his standard, as it appears from the proclamations which he issued, and which are now in our possession, and by collecting the remains of the armies of Paez and Bolivar, I ordered Brigadier Don Francisco Tomas Morales, Commandant General of the plains, to pursue, overtake and destroy at all events, this last gang of miscreants, which the Brigadier actually effected, as he informs me in the following communication, dated "Mountain of Patos, 20th inst.

"Most Excellent Sir—I have this moment (half past 5 o'clock in the afternoon) completely routed the rebel Cedeno, who at the head of 1200 cavalry and 324 infantry, dared to make a stand in this place against H. M's troops. All his infantry and a great part of his cavalry have been left dead on the field of battle, and the rest have been completely dispersed. I intend to follow the fugitives to their utter destruction. Our loss has been very small, but I cannot at present give you any farther detail: to-morrow I shall have that satisfaction."

The bearers of this dispatch, who were in the action, state, that our loss consists of Don Jose Garcia, Captain of the regiment of Navarre, killed, and about fifty wounded. Of the enemy more than 700 have been killed, and a large number of horses, a quantity of arms and other booty, besides a standard, have fallen into our hands.

They also state, that the rebels on leaving Calabozo, put to death all the prisoners and sick, not even sparing their own wounded whom they could not carry with them; and finally, that the prisoners taken from the enemy declared, that Bolivar had been severely wounded at St. Fernando, having been run through the body, and that it was not known whether he was dead or alive, &c. &c.

God preserve you many years.

PABLO MORILLO.

Note—The mountain of Patos is 2 miles in advance of Calabozo.

Official letter from the governor of Cumana, to the Captain General, dated Cumana, May 30, 1818.

"The enemy having taken post at the port of Madera, a league and a half from this place, I determined, on this the birthday of our august Sovereign, to attack him in his trenches with 700 men, and was so successful as to drive him from his strong entrenchments at the point of the bayonet. We have taken all his cavalry, consisting of 130 horses saddled, a large quantity of ammunition, muskets and lances, two pieces of artillery which he had mounted there, and all his cattle. The field is strewed with the dead bodies of the enemy—We have experienced some loss. As soon as I receive the returns, I shall send them to you.

God preserve, &c. &c.

PROPOSALS

for publishing by subscription, a new work, entitled

THE TREASURE OF HEALTH;

OR,

A complete collection of the most valuable secrets in medicine, for the cure of all diseases, wounds and other accidents to which the human body is subject; with the method of preparing, and instructions for using, the necessary remedies.

Also, the best preservatives against the plague, small pox, and all other kinds of contagious diseases.—Discovered after much research and experience by the most skilful physicians in Europe, and employed with the greatest success; and unknown till the present time in the United States.

Carefully collected, by a Benevolent Society, and faithfully translated from the French, and other foreign languages,

And published for the benefit of humanity,

BY LEWIS MERLIN.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The work which is this day offered for public usefulness, ought not to be looked upon as those which a desire of gain bring forth every day among us. This is a rare and precious collection of the most valuable secrets in medicine, which the most skilful physicians have discovered after long researches, labor and experience. It is, without contradiction, the first of the kind that has ever appeared within the United States of America, and a treasure which every head of a family could not too much appreciate; as it points out the symptoms of several diseases, of which many persons are only acquainted with their names; 2d, the receipt of the quantity and quality of the drugs that are made use of: 3d, their preparations so carefully described and detailed that the least intelligent person cannot be mistaken; and finally the necessary doses and the manner of administering them. One may rest assured that all in this collection is easy to put into practice, the expense is trifling because all the simples and plants which compose the greatest part of the receipts it contains, may be found in the fields and in the gardens; in a word, that it affords the means of curing, in a short time, all the diseases and evils with which one may be addicted, and at a low expense.

It is to a benevolent society we are indebted for such a precious treasure. Their whole good wish towards suffering humanity, induced that society to spare neither pains, care nor expense in obtaining from all parts of the globe, and to give in one and only collection, a valuable and complete selection of receipts for the cure of all diseases with which the human body is every day afflicted, which their renowned virtues, the repeated experience that has been made of them, even on patients who had been given up by their physicians, and the cures resulting from them, have caused them to be allouted as sovereign and infallible remedies.

Amongst the great number of diseases that have been cured by these inestimable secrets, we shall only name some of them, of which the foreign journals and American newspapers have borne the most authenticated testimony, such as apoplexy, asthma, bilious, windy and nephretique colic, consumption of lungs, debility, dysentery, diarrhœa, dropsy in the breast, in the brain, compound dropsy, anarsarque et ascites, epilepsy, diseases of the eyes, intermittent, tertian, quartan, continual and inflammatory fevers, malignant, spotted and scarlet fevers, hives (so fatal to children), inflammation of the bowels, of the liver and lungs, gangrene, itch, jaundice, fits, hooping-cough, lethargy, leprosy, rheumatisms, pulmonary, scurvy, swellings, sore throat, worms, tapeworm, complaints of the bowels, looseness or bloody flux, folly or madness originated after a sequel of disease, or through an intemperate use of spirituous liquors, cold and sciatique gouts, gravels, gonorrhœa, hydrophobia, bite of venomous animals, hœmorhagy, palpitation of the heart, stone, &c. &c.

This precious collection contains likewise a great number of receipts for preparing several kinds of balsame, ointment or salves, with the manner of using them, and the effects of which are so surprising, that they cure in a very short time, the cancers, without the assistance of any operation; the king's evil, tetter or ring's worm, wens; all sorts of cuts, wounds, however large and deep they may be, both inward and outward hemorrhoids, all pains and swellings arising from rheumatism, all kinds of burns, all cataracts of the eyes, even those that deprive of the sight; all sores that come on women's breasts; all kinds of sore legs and ulcers, however old they may be; chancres, bubos, and other venereal disorders; they join the nerves again, when they have been cut or broken in any manner whatever; they strengthen weak nerves and prevent the palsy whenever one is threatened with it; they draw out broken bones and all other foreign bodies that may be in sores or wounds; in short, these ointments or salves do possess such a virtue against the gangrene, that many persons being at the point of having their legs, hands or fingers cut off, have been entirely cured by the application of these ointments alone.

In this interesting work will be also found the inestimable receipt of the grand preventives against the plague, pestilential, spotted and other fevers, small pox, and all kinds of contagious diseases; their preparations with the manner of making use of them both inwardly and outwardly, as well to preserve ourselves against the contagion as to be cured whenever one is afflicted with them; and wonderful and most valuable secrets in medicine—always employed with success, and never failed to cure in epidemic and contagious diseases, and unknown to the present time in the United States of America.

In short, the famous and renowned syrup of long life, or the great preserver of health, whose so extraordinary virtues have drawn the attention of a great number of physicians, although the desire of gain has endeavored to counterfeit or imitate it, but always without success. That receipt so very simple, so very easy to prepare, and of a good taste, was given by an old gentleman of one hundred and thirty-two years of age, who began to make use of it at the age of 60 without his having ever experienced the least inconvenience. The good effects which this simple receipt has always produced on the persons who have made use of it are so well known that no more need to be said on that subject; and although this work contains a great number more of other receipts and other matters not less interesting for the human body, we shall not dwell any longer on the benefits arising to the public out of this precious collection; because it is only by putting what is taught in it into practice, that the public will be convinced of the truth that there is no quackery nor deception in all that has been said, but many truths which could not be too much appreciated.

We recommend this work to heads of families, more particularly to those who reside in the country, who owing to their situation are often deprived of medical assistance in cases of the most urging necessity; it is likewise of the greatest utility to those who through their profession are obliged to visit the sick; as also to the ministers and pastors of congregations, who in their situation are likewise obliged to afford relief to suffering humanity; in short, it could not be too much recommended to captains, masters of vessels, seafaring men and other travellers, who frequent warm climates, as well as to those persons who have a desire to preserve their own health; so much the more, as (we repeat it again) that all therein contained is easy to put in practice, and the expense is small.

As the publication of this work is not an object of a pecuniary speculation, but the welfare of humanity generally, we have endeavored, as well as the expense has permitted, to fix the price of subscription as low as possible, in order that the poor as well as the rich may be able to obtain it, and experience its good effects principally in warm seasons, and in cases of contagious diseases.

CONDITIONS.

To render this work more portable, and comply with the wishes of many persons, it will form a large volume in 12mo. to be printed on good paper and good type, and delivered neatly bound and lettered to subscribers at 150 cents, to non-subscribers, the price will be enhanced to two dollars, and the profit arising from it will be for the benefit of the poor.

As soon as the subscription will be sufficient to defray the expense of printing, the work will be put to press and distributed as soon as circumstances will permit.

To prevent counterfeiting this work, the copy right has been secured according to law; and moreover each copy shall be signed by the person who has the sole direction of superintending the publication of it.

ROMULUS RIGGS,

AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. WASHINGTON DRANE

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public generally, that he has opened a house of entertainment at his new building, on the road leading from Georgetown to Leesburg, 15 miles from the former, and 15 miles from the latter place.—The house and furniture are new and elegant, and every attendance and requisite have been provided for the accommodation of either parties of pleasure or persons on business. There is an excellent spring of water on the place, excelled perhaps by none in the state of Virginia. The distance from Georgetown, Washington or Alexandria, being an agreeable ride, he anticipates a share of public patronage, which he hopes his assiduity to business will justly merit.

The Improved Patent Plough.

THE expensive force necessary for ploughing in the common way, has been long known and lamented by farmers. Many attempts have been made to obviate that inconvenience, by the construction of a plough on Mechanical principles, and patents have been granted to applicants who profess to have improved on that agricultural implement. These improvements are now before the public, the proper arbiters in such cases, who will approve or condemn according to the merits or demerits of the performance.

I, also, have become a candidate for public patronage, and shall attempt to explain and give reasons to show at least some advantages which I think my plough possesses over any other now in use.

For its durability and simplicity of construction, its first excellency, no plough now in use surpasses it—but its chief advantages lie in the ease with which it breaks and inverts the soil, and will plough in clover or grass land of any kind without being clogged or choaked. These properties arise from the mechanical principles on which it is formed. The wedge is said to possess the requisite properties for breaking and raising the soil with the least applicable force. This plough is so formed as to form a wedge with the mould-board, which raises the earth gradually to the greatest perpendicular height, when by a regular turn of the mould-board it is inverted, rendering the pressure inconsiderable, and consequently the force necessary to draw it proportionably small. The beam is made of iron or wood, and has a considerable curve, which permits all vegetable matter to pass off. I would recommend the iron beam, as it has several advantages over the wood, and the difference of expense small.

I have thought it a duty to my fellow citizens to publish a few lines of instruction to facilitate the mode of using and repairing the same. Before the plough is used, the mould-board should be scoured with free stone or a well burnt brick and water until it is perfectly smooth. The horses should draw by a double or trebic tree, which is confined to the clevice or beam by an open ring. The point and share should be laid with steel when necessary; the latter must be kept level with the bar, and the point inclined a little down. If this be well attended to by the good husbandman, he will be able to eat the 'fatted calf,' when the indolent will sink into want.

These ploughs will be furnished at my shop in this County' and in Alexandria by James Atkinson, near Poston's tavern, Peyton street.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near New-Port, Maryland, on Friday, the 25th May, a Negro Man named GERARD, about 5 feet high, of a dark complexion, about 30 years of age, stout made, limps a little when he walks: had on when he went away a country cloth jacket and trowsers about half worn and coarse hat, but he may change his dress, as he has free connexions a little below St. Thomas's Manor, at Nace Butler's. He has a wife at Thomas Jennifer's Quarters, near Port Tobacco, and calls himself GERARD BUTLER. He took a black mare with him, which he has since left at his father's, the said Nace's. RAN away from the subscriber, on the the 3d inst. Negro JEM, about 5 feet 5 inches high, 25 or 26 years of age, stout and well made, except that he is perhaps a little knockkneed; his complexion dark, has a large scar on the upper lip, occasioned, it is said, by his falling; when a child, on some edged tool; has a down look when spoken to, and is apt to be short and insolent in answering. The clothes he took with him are not recollected, except a red flannel shirt, a pair of Russia duck sailor's trowsers, and a coarse wool hat with broad brim, nearly half worn. Having gone off without any provocation, it is probable his intention is to steer his course towards Baltimore or Pennsylvania, and pass for a freeman. He has hauled the seine the two last seasons in Pomonkey, where he may have gone, or perhaps to Alexandria, where he is also a little acquainted. If taken 20 miles from home, or out of the county, I will give 20 dollars for securing him in any gaol, or if taken 50 miles from home, or out of the state, I will give the above reward of fifty dollars. Dr. Thomson's System of Chemistry.

IN FOUR VOLUMES OCTAVO.

THE preceding edition of Dr. Thomson's Chemistry, had acquired so much reputation both in England and upon the continent of Europe, that a new edition, comprising the new facts with which the science had been enriched, and the new views of the subject which extended knowledge had suggested as indispensable, was eagerly looked for by the scientific world. A new edition has accordingly appeared, wherein the former edition of five volumes has been condensed into four.

All the new discoveries, and all the new theories of Chemical Phænomena, have been considered and embraced in the present improved edition: so that it is indispensable to the chemical student, as presenting the only condensed view of the changes and alterations in chemical doctrine, which the discoveries of the last ten years have suggested. No apology therefore can be necessary for reprinting such a book in this country; for the press does not furnish a substitute for it. But, there is so much theoretical suggestion—so much abstruse calculation—so much fact of dubious authority—and so much dubious validity—that notes and illustrations are absolutely necessary, not merely to render the book more useful, but more intelligible.

Under these impressions, I thought fit to write notes in illustration (and sometimes in contradiction) of the work itself, rather than to make any abridgement of it. Those who wish to know the modern views of chemical science, must peruse it; and to very many who will be anxious to study it, elucidation will be necessary. I have endeavoured to supply these, to the best of my ability; regardless whether my own opinions are in dissonance or coincidence with those of my author; leaving to the reader to decide between us.

The work will be published, with notes and illustrations, in four volumes 8vo.

THOMAS COOPER, M. D.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work will be printed on a superfine paper, with a new small pica letter; and will be published early in the ensuing summer.

II. It will be illustrated with a number of cuts, of which several have been necessarily added to the London edition.

June 20 Jailor.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE's MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced steze of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of person can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an intallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.
